

Media Release

Sunday 19th April 2009

Having his cake and eating it too!

Having his cake and eating it too, was Edgar Alan Pig at his sixth birthday party on Sunday at his home, Edgar's Mission Farm Sanctuary in Willowmavin, via Kilmore. Ever so careful not to make a hog of himself, the portly porcine gently devoured his vegan birthday cake as it was passed to him by his doting number one fan and guardian, Pam Ahern.

"It was truly wonderful to see so many people turn out to help celebrate dear Edgar's special day. What are the odds that out of the billions of pigs in the world that I would end up with the most handsome, dashing debonair, charismatic, witting and charming one of the all? He is indeed some pig" said Pam.

The ever popular Edgar turned on his inimitable charm as he left a stream of hundreds and thousands adorning his chin. Proving his versatility he even drew the raffle delving his snout firmly into the bucket emerging with the winning ticket stuck to his snout! Face painting, chalk art and farm tours kept those gathered busy throughout the day, and the more adventurous even joined in for a spot of line dancing with the True Blue Country Line Dancers.

"The standard of art this year was absolutely amazing, so many talented and compassionate people really supported our day and I wish to thank them most sincerely along with the loyal and dedicated volunteers without whom events such as this would not be possible" concluded Pam Ahern.

Useful website: www.edgarsmission.org.au

Media contact: Pam Ahern on 0408 397 301.

Photos attached for media use: large file photos available upon request

"If we could live happy and healthy lives without harming others... why wouldn't we?"